

From: Don Briggs
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 11:32am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Dear US DOJ,

One outcome of the Microsoft settlement should be that, when submitting information electronically to government agencies, one should never be required to submit documents in Microsoft proprietary formats. Government agencies should never require text documents in Microsoft Word format, for instance. To do so reinforces Microsoft's monopoly position.

Regards,
Don Briggs
1530 Lockhart Gulch Road
Scotts Valley, CA 95066